

ELI BEN-ISRAEL.
Eli Ben Israel, weary with his toil,
And heavy hearted from continual grief,
One evening bowed beneath a stately palm
And weeping, prayed to Yahveh for relief.
His words were simple, but his prayer
Sincere,
And offered in the faith that wavered ne'er.
So, like an angel, from the earth it sped,
Nor paused till the pinnit hit it reached God's ear.
The tropic sun went swiftly down the west,
And as the shadows hastened o'er the plain,
Sweet was the slumber weary Eli found,
While o'er him hung night's Queen
With stately train.
Then came a vision to the sleeper's gaze,
A dream of comfort to his burdened soul.
He saw the end of all his toil on earth,
And read his name on Life's illumined scroll.
A fuller city than Jerusalem
Before his eyes in Orient splendour stood,
And angels, clad like rays of morning
glow,
Smiled on him as they sang the praise of God.
A voice whose clarion tones were sweet and glad,
Then spoke to him, "Oh wait in patience still,
The soul that would enjoy supernal bliss Must bravely do, and calmly bear God's will.
Thy toll on earth will fit thy rest,
Thy suffering purge thy heart from all its dross;
Lo! angels walk unseen with every soul
Who, through eternal gain through earthly loss."
He woke—glad Eli—with his soul refreshed,
And trod his weary way with hopeful heart.
And when his pining neighbors sighed
for him,
Thanked God for Eli's rough file, and Sorrow's dart.
And over in his prayer these words appeared,
Thy rest was gained, and Joy eternal won.
"O quickly, Leader of Thy chosen race, Here, as on high, let all Thy will be done!"

Strayed or Stolen.
FROM the Subscriber's plantation, on or about the 12th inst., one large Bay HORSE, said Horse is about 16 hands high, about six years old last Spring, I think he has three white feet, small star in forehead.
Also, one fine Bay Mare COLT, one year old last June. Both disappeared the same night. I traded for the horse from T. N. Tolbert, near old Cambridge, last Spring. A liberal reward will be paid for the recovery of the above Horse and Colt, or any information leading to find them.

BOOT AND SHOE MAN

AGAIN salutes the good people of Edgefield, and invites them, when they come to town, to call at his new and beautiful SHOE EMPORIUM,
Where they will be politely and justly dealt with.
Never in the history of Augusta has a better or larger Stock of Boots and a Saving of 20 per cent. in their annual Shoe Bill.

He will be responsible for every article sold, and make reclamation in every instance when work does not give full satisfaction.
His house is not sustained by "influence," nor by the services of Drummers. The character of the Goods he keeps, and the low and uniform prices at which he sells, recommend themselves.
To the people of Edgefield, who have so generously patronized me, and to whom I am largely indebted for the partial success I have attained, I return my most grateful acknowledgments; and promise them that I will in the future do all in my power to merit the generous confidence they have reposed in me.

Insurance Notice.
THE undersigned having established his office at Edgefield, as General Agent for the Cotton States Life Insurance Company, invites attention to one or two of the advantages offered, those who may desire to effect insurance on their lives in a safe Home Company:
The Board of Managers at recent meeting passed unanimously the following Resolution:
"Resolved, That in view of the fact that there are unusually large sums paid for Life Insurance, to the Companies of the North and East, which sums, being there invested, contribute to the enrichment of those sections, whilst our own South is greatly in need of cash capital to prosecute successfully our Agricultural and Mechanical enterprises, it is ordered, that for the purpose of retaining these sums in our midst, hereafter a certain portion of the net cash receipts from premiums amounting to not more than 70 per cent. of the same be invested in such manner as may be in accordance with the regulations of the Company, in those sections from which the said premiums are attained." (Signed) WM. B. JOHNSON, Pres't.
GEORGE S. O'BEAR, Sec'y.
In accordance with the above Resolution a Board of Advisory Trustees has been regularly organized at Edgefield C. H., S. C., with the following Officers, viz:
Maj. W. T. GARY, President.
Capt. B. C. BRYAN, Vice President.
R. J. SARRS, Esq., Secretary.
The Board is now prepared to transact business, and invest the funds of the Company agreeable to the proposed regulations.
The Financial strength of the Company places it in high rank. Its last Annual Statement shows that the Company possess, besides its large Guarantee, $170 for every $100 of its liability.
